TWENTY-FIFTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

From an early age, we tend to distort the concept of "fairness": "I am good. I deserve good things. I am not receiving good things. Something must be wrong. Who's going to fix it?" We also know the age-old expression: "Who ever said life was fair?" Jesus knew this expression when he offered his parable in today's Gospel reading. Christian stewards acknowledge, with humility, that they receive good things from the Lord in abundance; even if these gifts are not the ones they think they need when they need them. Consider which servants you identify with most in the Gospel reading, the ones who demand "fairness" or that final servant who, seemingly deserves the least.

WISDOM, GOD'S VISION FOR LIFE

Scripture and the Tradition of the Catholic Church provide an abundance of wisdom, though it can often be challenging to apply it to our lives. In this 8-session study, Jeff Cavins and Thomas Smith examine biblical wisdom as it relates to daily life. Drawing on the wisdom literature of the Bible—Proverbs, Wisdom, Sirach, and Ecclesiastes—we will examine God's Wisdom in practical areas such as friendships, finances, marriage and aging. Between sessions, participants will be encouraged to contemplate scripture passages and to journal.

Bible study will begin on October 18th from 6:30pm-8:00pm in Vincent Hall and meet every other Wednesday, with breaks for holidays.

Those interested should contact the Parish Office at 488-2659 by October 1st.

The cost of student materials is $20.00. Contact Lynn Parker at lynnhp01@yahoo.com for questions.
